

JAMES R. HOLT, AGED KAMAIA, CALLED BY DEATH

Prominent Member of Well-Known Island Family Dies at His Home

James Robinson Holt died at his home, 1155 Kamehameha IV road at 4:30 a. m. today of dropsy of the heart. He was 77 years and six months old at the time of his death, being born on the seventeenth day of October, 1838. He was the eldest son of Robert William and Watty Robinson Holt. A younger brother, Owen Jones Holt, died in 1891.

He leaves surviving him his widow, Lokalia, and son, James Lawrence Holt; also a son by a former marriage, Robert Holt of Kalaupapa, Molokai; a brother, John Dominis Holt, at Oxford, England; and the following nephews, William R. Owen J. George H., Edward S., and Chris J. Holt; also Mrs. Annie K. Kentwell and several grandchildren, nephews and nieces.

Mr. Holt was born at Pakaka, where Allen & Robinson, Limited's, lumber yard is now situated. He was connected with the firm of Robinson & Company in his early youth, and after the death of their father in 1862, he and his two brothers conducted Halemano ranch in the district of Waialua, which is now owned and controlled by the Waialua Agricultural Co. The body will be on view at the undertaker's parlors of M. E. Silva, on Kukul street, at half-past seven this evening to the family and friends. Funeral services will be held at the undertaker's parlors at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow.
